Report of the LIBRARIAN

*Wm. Necker

J. Miller*

The thirty-ninth year of the Weeks Library has been the most successful in its history because the circulation was 403 more than that of last year, the total being 7115. About twenty-three percent of this increase was in the children's books.

The Library has been open 104 days during the year, no time having been lost because of holidays or storms.

160 books were added, 2 being gifts of publishers, one given by Mrs. Hodge, 5 by Mrs. Whitten and 17 through a grant from the State. These were juvenile books and the Columbia Encyclopedia in one volume published in 1935 which we had much wanted and needed, but had found too expensive for us to buy. A new feature of the work of the Public Library Commission is an exchange of books between Libraries by which books not wanted in one place are sent where they may be of use and we received five of these giving in return duplicates which had been given to us.

30 volumes were discarded or removed to our storage room.

46 new borrowers' cards were issued, half of them going to school children who are making more use of the Library each year. Teachers are permitted to take as many books as they wish for use in the school room and may keep them for an indefinite time and in this way children learn something of the resources of the Library and are influenced to take out books for themselves. It is our aim to increase the help which we can give to the schools and also to High School pupils who find it necessary and convenient to make use of what we have in satisfying their various needs.

Our fines amounted to not much more than two-thirds of the sum received last year, which would seem to indicate that people have been more careful of their pennies.

The condition of the lawn was improved last spring at considerable expense and the grounds were much beautified by the setting out of several evergreens, the gift of Mr. Miller.

Respectfully submitted,

LILLIAN A ODELL,

Librarian

Report of the SUPERINTENDENT of SCHOOLS

To the School Board of Greenland,
New Hampshire.

It gives me pleasure to submit my annual report as Superintendent of Schools, the seventh in the series.

The statistical tables accompanying this report, more in number than usual, are designed to give a clearer and better picture of our school plant, our pupils and teachers, the way they live and work, our relations with our school neighbors and the cost of it all. Table I shows at a glance where each pupil is for whose schooling Greenland levies taxes; there are seventeen such pupils more than last year at this time. Table II gives the history of the Greenland schools for the year ending June 30, 1935. The same statistics for the last ten years are contained in Table III, a collection of interesting facts such as the recent fine reduction in the number of tardinesses. Table IV records some of the same facts and other important statistics for each of the districts in our Union, No. 16, for last year. Tables V and VI show the cost of education per $1,000 of equalized valuation for Greenland and the associated districts of the Union, as well as for the districts having the lowest and highest cost in New Hampshire. Good attendance is recorded in Table VII in a new way which seems, in the long run, to be fairer to those who take pride in regular attendance. By this means credit is given for a full week of attendance wherever the week occurs in the school year.

September of this school year brought to the school the unexpected number of sixteen to enter the first grade. Fortunately no plan for further consolidation of the grades had been put into operation. Grades one, four and five are small but apparently the total enrollment of the schools is coming back to that of earlier years.

Since the last annual report the teachers have co-operated in several lines of special endeavor in the class room. Without neglecting in any way the practices

We have not neglected our school and community manners nor the mechanics of getting into and out of the building and of getting from home to school and from school to home. We are making every possible effort to teach safety of all kinds to the pupils, laying special emphasis on the danger of the automobile to the young child.

We have worked together also in the matter of health and cleanliness. Mrs. Sheehy's diligence in these matters is well known and the past year shows no reduction of her effort. The teachers appreciate this and they continue to help in the administration of the details of health teaching.

We have made as much progress with music as is consistent with our method of using one of the regular force as a teacher of music. Mrs. Sharp has laid a good foundation. However, now that music will next year be approved for state aid, I recommend that a special supervisor of music be employed, thus making it possible for all of Mrs. Sharp's time to be given to her own school.

We meet occasionally as a group of teachers for the discussion of common problems and for planning ventures into new efforts to make a better school. We see many places for improvement but we believe that the school is the best of the last few years and we are determined that it shall be better.

Your attention to interior painting and other matters of repair since the last report has resulted in the neat appearance of every room. Pupils respect a well kept building. An ill kept building invites further mutilation. The additional radiation installed in the first and second grades room makes this room entirely comfortable. I would recommend a consideration of oil as a fuel instead of coal. It offers the advantage of evenly controlled heat and of no heavy fires on warm days, (wasted fuel) at about the cost of soft coal. In addition to having a cleaner building, in the absence of coal, the janitor, not needing to use any time on fire and ashes, could devote all his time to the building.

Those who administer the daily work of the school and who have the responsibility of so living and working as to make a steadily improving school, realize that little progress is possible without the sympathy and cooperation of parents, school and town officials and many other people. I express the thought of the teachers as well as my own when I say that we have this cooperation in Greenland and that we appreciate it.

Respectfully submitted,

CLIFTON A. TOWLE
